FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

vs.

AMG SERVICES, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:12-cv-00536-GMN-VCF

ORDER

Pending before the Court are the Sixth and Seventh Interim Applications for an Order Approving Fees and Expenses, (ECF Nos. 1278, 1288), filed by court-appointed Monitor Thomas W. McNamara (“McNamara”), to which there are no responses or oppositions. The Applications arise from McNamara’s exercise of authority as court-appointed monitor over the judgment debtor’s assets associated with this case. Specifically, the Court granted the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) summary judgment against Defendant Scott Tucker (“Tucker”) and his businesses for a payday lending scheme in violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a)(1). The Court enjoined Tucker from assisting “any consumer in receiving or applying for any loan or other extension of Consumer Credit,” and ordered that Tucker pay approximately $1.27 billion in equitable monetary relief to the FTC. (See Order 27:17–30:14, ECF No. 1057).

In the Order appointing McNamara as a monitor, the Court granted him authority to preserve or recover assets on behalf of the Monitorship Estate. (See Appointment Order, ECF No. 1099). The Appointment Order provides that McNamara may engage attorneys and other professionals and that McNamara and his retained personnel are “entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order, and for the cost of actual

1 out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, from the Assets now held by or in the possession or
2 control of, or which may be received by, the Defendants or Monitorship Entities,” based on
3 periodic requests to the court. (Id. §§ VIII(L)–(M), XV).
